A BLUTO BATTLE
CRUISER HAS ARRIVED.

A large, yellow, irregularly shaped comet or asteroid dominates the left side of the frame, extending diagonally towards the bottom right. It has a grey battle cruiser attached to its left end. The background is a vibrant blue and purple nebula with white star speckles.

AND IN TYPICAL BLUTO FASHION,
THEY'RE CLAIMING DOMINION OVER OUMUAMUA.

GNUU, REPORT.

WHAT'S GOING ON OUT
THERE?

THE BLUTO BATTLE
CRUISER IS IGNORING OUR PRESENCE, AGENT LLAMA.

THEY'VE DOCKED WITH OUMUAMUA.

I NEED TO GET TO THE BLUTOS'
INTRUSION POINT.

BUT FIRST
I WANT TO STOP OFF AND SEE SOME NEW FRIENDS.

GNUU RELAYS
RADAR MAPS TO ME
SO I CAN NAVIGATE
THESE INTERIOR PASSAGES.

BLUTOS
ARE AN AGGRESSIVE
RACE FROM DEEPER NEAR THE CORE.

THERE
THEY ARE, ALREADY PRANCING AROUND LIKE
THEY OWN THE PLACE.

WHICH, IN THEIR MIND,
THEY DO.

WHY ISN'T OUMUAMUA
EVICTING THEM?
THE WAY IT
DID TO ME.

FICKLE SPACE
WANDERER.
